

Meteorite

Meteorites are extra-terrestrial rocks. They fall on Earth. Asteroids and comets are the parent objects of the meteorites. The primitive meteorites are called chondrites. Chondrites are the rocks formed at the time of formation of solar system. Achondrites are rocks derived from differentiated asteroids.